

White House
Denies He Has Resigned

Now on Fishing
Trip; Maine Vote
Deciding Factor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An administration official said today that Sherman Adams for all practical purposes has left the White House staff and is not expected to return to work as the assistant to President Eisenhower.

Adams left this week for a fishing trip in New England. The administration figure told United Press International, "I think the question of a resignation is over and done with — I don't believe he's coming back."

IF THIS OFFICIAL'S information was correct, and there was every reason to believe it was, all that remained was the formal announcement of Adams' decision to leave the White House. In the making since the House investigation of favors extended to Adams' good friend, Bernard Goldfine, the Boston textile tycoon.

In Newport, R. I., the White House denied today that Adams has resigned.

"It is just not true," White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said.

"THERE HAS BEEN no resignation in any shape, form or manner submitted by Gov. Adams," Hagerty said.

Hagerty issued the denial in commenting on a story in the Lancia, N.H., Citizen that it had learned from a reliable Washington source that Adams had resigned.

Hagerty said the only part of the story that was "truthful" was that Adams was on a Canadian fishing trip.

HE SAID HE DIDN'T know when Adams would return to the White House.

After making his statement that Adams had not submitted a resignation, Hagerty added "that disposes of that as far as I know."

If there was any doubt in Adams' mind about leaving, it was, according to officials in Washington who should know, resolved by the Maine election where the Adams-Goldfine affair may have been a factor in the startling Democratic victory.

ADAMS REPORTEDLY felt that he was in no position to make GOP campaign speeches this fall because of the revelations before the House Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight which showed the President's assistant to have accepted many favors from Goldfine. This generosity was extended while Goldfine was seeking help in his troubles with federal regulatory agencies.

One source said the Eisenhower brought no pressure on Adams to quit. The President, according to the same source, made every effort to "ride out the storm" concerning Adams but that it was Adams, himself, who came to the conclusion that his continuance at the White House would be detrimental to the President and his party.

33 Cuban Rebels
Captured in U.S.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., (UPI) — Some 33 Cuban rebels, heavily armed and dressed in battle fatigues, were apprehended here early today when their 62-foot yacht ran aground while they apparently were en route to Cuba. Two others escaped.

Customs agents said the yacht Harpoon, was loaded with rifles, machine guns, pistols, a ton and one-half of ammunition and other military equipment.

New Private School to Be Ready Oct. 1 for Grades 1 - 6

PALM DESERT—Opening date for Shadow Mountain School, a new private institution in Palm Desert, was today set for Oct. 1.

Organized by Realtors Ted Smith and Hal Kapp, the school offers courses in grades one through six and is designed as a preparatory institution for high school.

CLASSROOMS WILL be set up in the building on Larkspur Drive which is now occupied by the Post Office, Kapp said.

School supervisor is Mrs. Florence Purvis, who has been at Carl F. Curtis School in Los Angeles for nine years, according to Kapp.

Kapp said the school curriculum emphasizes "fundamentals and

Eisenhower to Give Report on Formosa To Nation, World on Radio, TV Thursday

Reds Charge U.S. with War Provocation

Say Planes Twice Violated Claimed Air Space Today

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — The Communists blasted the Quemoyis with artillery again today and charged the United States with a "deliberate war provocation" in flying warplanes over Red-claimed territory.

They also were reported building up their MIG jet fighter strength by moving planes into a sixth new airfield on the mainland coast opposite Formosa.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS came as the winds of an approaching storm stirred up rough seas in the Formosa Strait and kept any further U.S.-escorted Nationalist convoys from reaching the Quemoyis.

However, NBC correspondent Cecil Brown told United Press International that U. S. military officials in Formosa had recommended to Washington that U. S. 7th fleet warships accompany Nationalist vessels to the Quemoy beaches instead of stopping at the three-mile limit.

BROWN SAID HE got his information from an "unimpeachable source," and added that a decision—probably from President Eisenhower—is expected within the next 24 to 48 hours.

Any such plan would mean that American ships would sail to within easy range of Red shore batteries that face the Quemoyis from the mainland.

IN WASHINGTON, a top military official, who is in close touch with operations in the Formosa Strait, said he knew of "no change" in present U. S. policy of conveying Nationalist ships to the three-mile limit while seeking to avoid any clash with the Chinese Communists.

Communist China charged that U. S. Red Chinese air space on two occasions today and issued a new "severe warning" on the matter.

FBI Adds Name To Noted '10' List

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Frank L. Spreng, a reform school graduate with Ivy League tastes and the characteristics of a chameleon, was added today to the FBI's "10 most wanted fugitives" list.

basic skills," programmed to prepare children "to meet the challenge of any high school they may choose to continue their education."

"MUSIC, ART AND science are integral parts of our curriculum and are correlated in such a way as to be an extension of class work in other fields," Kapp added.

He explained that reading readiness and manuscript writing are started at the beginning of first grade. Reading, Kapp said, is to be taught by phonetic and sight methods, "with emphasis on meaning, understanding and expression."

Lawyers File Brief for Integration

Supreme Court To Hear Oral Arguments Sept. 11

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Negro attorneys told the Supreme Court today that "the very survival of the rule of law" depends on continued integration of Little Rock's Central High School.

They said in a brief filed with the court that the case affords the court an opportunity to "restate in unmistakable terms . . . the supremacy of all constitutional rights over bigots—big and small."

THE BRIEF was filed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on behalf of Negro students seeking admittance to the all-white Central High School.

The Little Rock School Board, in a brief filed Monday, asked the high court to approve a 2½ year delay in integrating the school.

Government officials said the Justice Department will not submit a new brief but will stand on its earlier recommendation that the court order integration without further delay.

THE VIEWS CONTAINED in the various briefs will form the basis for oral arguments which resume before the high court Thursday.

The Justice Department was prepared to mobilize U. S. marshals to help enforce integration in event of mob violence that could not be handled by local police officers in Little Rock.

ATTY. GEN. WILLIAM P. Rogers late Tuesday made this clear when he disclosed he had written the city manager of Little Rock, Ark., that "careful plans should be made now by responsible officials to prevent disorder or violence in the event" of a Supreme Court order for integration.

In a companion letter to the Little Rock School Board, Rogers promised the full help of the federal government if the board seeks injunctions against possible troublemakers.

UAW to Decide Strike Deadline At Meet Today

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers' executive board was scheduled to decide today whether recent progress in talks with the "big three" auto companies was enough to warrant another delay in setting a strike deadline.

"HOWEVER," SAID Stevenson, "juveniles going directly home from any gathering authorized by their parents, such as the movies or properly chaperoned parties, will be permitted to do so."

Under the city ordinance, the parents are responsible for juveniles being out after 10 p.m. unless there exists a genuine necessity for them to be out.

THOUSAND PALMS—Fire Chief Claude Huse is looking for a house—any kind of house—which can be burned down by his eager fire fighters.

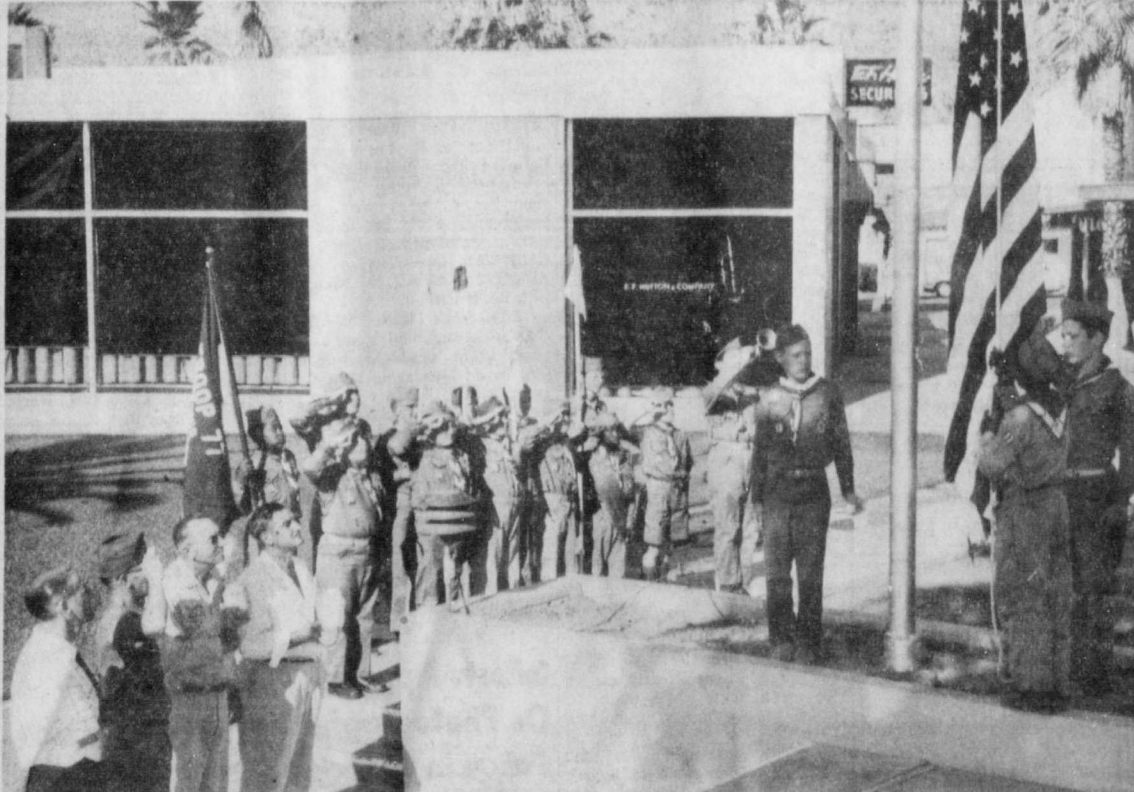

This turnabout originated with announcement by Chief Huse that the community will soon observe the first birthday of its volunteer fire station.

For almost one year, Chief Huse noted, his men have been hard at work, studying fire-fighting procedures and viewing films of fire-fighting techniques until they've been trained to combat any kind of blaze.

But the well-trained firemen have never fought a fire—the community fire alarm hasn't sounded once in the past year.

So Chief Huse is looking for a house, any old house that can be ignited to give his men a chance to test their fire-fighting proficiency. Anyone wishing to dispose of a one, two or three-story home, in any condition, is asked to call Chief Huse at the Thousand Palms Forestry Service headquarters.

However, the chief pointed out, he needs the owner's written consent to set fire to the house, "particularly if the owner is absent from the area."

FLAG RAISING CEREMONIES in the Center by Boy Scout Troop 77 yesterday marked the second anniversary of the Troop's civic service project, and the 125th anniversary of California's admission to the Union. For two years it has been the responsibility of Troop 77, sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, to put the American flags up on Palm Canyon Drive. At the ceremony in the Center, lower left, are Harry O'Connell, troop committee chairman; Walt Pagan, scoutmaster; Archie Long, city electrician, who uses his truck to help the boys in putting up the flags on holidays; and City Councilman Leonard Wolf. City Curfew Ordinance to Be Enforced Now

Chief of Police August G. Kettmann today directed his officers "to be firm but courteous" in the enforcement of the city's Curfew Ordinance.

Now that youngsters are back in the Village and ready to start school, the police will carefully watch for any violation of the curfew.

THE LOCAL CURFEW law states that no person under the age of 18 years of age will be out on the streets or in public places unless they are accompanied by a parent or legal guardian, or unless they are on an authorized family errand.

Juvenile officer F. A. Stevenson said that any person in this age group who is stopped after 10 p.m. and who has no reasonable excuse for being out, or is loitering in any public place, or is at a public place not approved by their parents, may be subject to arrest.

"HOWEVER," SAID Stevenson, "juveniles going directly home from any gathering authorized by their parents, such as the movies or properly chaperoned parties, will be permitted to do so."

Under the city ordinance, the parents are responsible for juveniles being out after 10 p.m. unless there exists a genuine necessity for them to be out.

FCC Allots UHF Television Channel 19 to Palm Springs

A change in the channel allocation for Ultra High Frequency (UHF) television in Palm Springs was announced by the Federal Communications Commission yesterday, and at the same time the FCC announced that a formal agreement has been made between the United States and Mexico for allocation of 70 UHF television channels in states adjoining the border.

Palm Springs UHF channel allocation, which was formerly 14, was changed to 19. No application is currently pending for the use of the channel.

THE AGREEMENT between the United States and Mexico covers UHF channels 14 to 83, with frequency ranges from 470 to 890 megacycles.

The new agreement includes the specific channel assignments to 60 Mexico and 83 United States communities.

It involves some changes in present UHF channel allocations in this country. However, no existing UHF stations along the Southwest border will be forced to switch channels.

NEGOTIATIONS on the UHF agreement began last November. The United States and Mexico made an agreement in 1952 on the allocation of very high frequency (VHF) channels along the border.

Other California allocations follow: Brawley 16; Corona 32; El Centro 26, 48; Los Angeles 22, 28, 34; Oxnard 82; Riverside 40, 46; San Bernardino 18, 24, 30; Ventura 38; San Diego 15, 27, 39, 51; Santa Barbara 20, 26; Santa Paula 16.

A firm date for the initial test in which a nuclear device will be detonated from a balloon will probably be set Saturday, a spokesman said.

The second shot will not be detonated until after Sept. 20 and the third will not be ready before October according to the AEC.

The AEC had announced Tuesday that the first shot would be detonated Monday.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — One former Democratic senator emerged on top today from the first major test in his campaign to return to Congress, but another returned to political limbo.

The survivor was Gov. Ernest W. McFarland of Arizona, majority leader of the Senate during the last two years of the Truman administration. He won the Democratic senatorial nomination in his state Tuesday to oppose Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican who defeated him six years ago.

AMONG THE LOSERS in the primary elections Tuesday in 10 states was former Sen. Claude Pepper, once a prominent voice among Southern liberals. He was snowed under in Florida by Sen. Spessard L. Holland, a conservative who was renominated for a third term.

Lewis Resigns Planning Post After Five Years

CATHEDRAL CITY — L. C. Lewis, veteran Cathedral City businessman, today announced his resignation from the County Planning Commission, effective immediately.

In a letter addressed to County Supervisor George V. Berkeley, Lewis noted that he does not wish to be re-appointed to the commission when his term expires Oct. 6.

Lewis added: "I also wish to tender my resignation as commissioner effective today."

Lewis explained that "the growth of my insurance business demands all of my time and makes this action necessary."

Appointed to the commission on April 8, 1952, Lewis served for 5½ years.

"I have greatly enjoyed the work on the commission, and I have great respect for the members thereof," Lewis told Berkeley.

To Outline Position of United States

Confers Today With Top Aides On Situation

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI) — President Eisenhower will return to Washington Thursday to make a television and radio report to the people on the Formosa situation, the White House said today.

White House Press Secretary, James C. Hagerty said it would be "a major report to the American people, and for that matter to the world on the situation" in the Formosa Strait as it exists then.

THE PRESIDENT made the final decision to make the speech this morning, Hagerty said. The President discussed making the report in a telephone conference with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in Washington Tuesday afternoon.

The President will return here Friday to resume his vacation.

THE PRESIDENT will make the speech from his White House office from 7 to 7:30 p.m. (p.d.t.). It will be carried live on some radio and television networks and by delayed broadcast on others, Hagerty said.

A request for radio and television network time was not made until this morning and details still were being worked out.

EARLIER TODAY the President summoned two White House aides to bring him from Washington detailed reports on the Formosa Strait crisis and other national security matters.

He scheduled a conference with Brig. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, White House staff secretary, and Gordon Gray, his special assistant for national security matters, who were flying here from Washington.

GOP Leaders Believe Adams Should Resign

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican strategists declared privately today Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams should resign to prevent more Maine-type landslides for Democrats.

One GOP source high in the party told United Press International the defeat of incumbent Republican Sen. Frederick G. Payne by Gov. Edmund G. Muskie in the Maine senatorial election has proved the political liabilities of the Bernard Goldfine case in which Adams was a figure.

PAYNE, LIKE ADAMS, acknowledged receiving favors from Goldfine, a millionaire textile tycoon from Boston.

The argument advanced in some GOP circles was that Adams should not subject other Republican candidates to the similar—if indirect—handicap by keeping his important administration post.

Meanwhile, there were these reactions to the Democrats' near-sweep of the Maine "early bird" election:

DEMOCRATIC PARTY Chairman Paul M. Butler said the Formosa "mess" helped the Democrats. But Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told a news conference he did not think foreign policy played a part, because "our foreign policy in all its essential aspects has been and will be bi-partisan."

California's Democratic gubernatorial candidate Edmund G. (Pat) Brown predicted "the tide that began Monday in Maine will sweep all the way across the nation."

Chairman Andrew F. Schoepel (R-Kan.) of the Senate GOP campaign committee, said he did not see Maine pointing to a national trend.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson conceded the Republicans took a "pretty bad beating" in the Maine election but he refused to see the Democratic victory as a "weathervane."

Ghosts Appear On Photographs Taken in Church

LONDON (UPI)—Amateur photographer T. L. Taylor, 42, thought he was photographing empty choir stalls inside Winchester Cathedral, but the pictures came out with people sitting in the stalls. Ghosts, he said, crept into the pictures.

Taylor took the two pictures inside the cathedral nearly a year ago. The first shows the choir stalls empty. The second, taken an instant later, shows 13 figures in the stalls, most of them dressed in medieval costume. Taylor swears he saw no one there.

He said the ghostly intruders on his film have brought him many offers for the pictures and that they have multiplied in value. He declined to say how much has been offered.

Taylor's wife, their 16-year-old daughter, Valerie, and a girl friend of Valerie said they were with him when he took the pictures. They say they saw nothing in the stalls. "It gives me the creeps," Valerie said.

The South Staffordshire Metropolitan Society, which keeps tabs on ghosts in Taylor's part of England, is interested.

Fisher Denies 'In Love' With Elizabeth Taylor

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Boyish Eddie Fisher, whose marriage to Debbie Reynolds once was considered "ideal" by Hollywood, denied today he was in love with raven-haired Elizabeth Taylor.

The singer admitted he was having a marital "misunderstanding" with Debbie but said it had nothing to do with his breakfast-midnight dates with Miss Taylor in New York.

"No, I'm not in love with Liz," Fisher said. "She's not in love with me. The problem between Debbie and me has nothing to do with Elizabeth."

"We are all good friends," Eddie and Debbie were both at their West Los Angeles home where late Tuesday they scaled a backyard fence to escape newsmen and photographers and take Miss Reynolds to a doctor because of her "nerves."

Wife of Confessed Slayer Gave Arrest Tip to Police

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (UPI)—Authorities said Tuesday the wife of Floyd J. Robertson Jr. supplied the tip that led to his arrest for the kidnap-slaying of pretty Marjorie Schneider, 18.

The 23-year-old father of three signed a 500-word confession admitting he abducted, raped and shot the young blonde stenographer because "I couldn't stand to see someone have a good time."

SHERIFF RAY Scheerer of Larimer County said Darlene Robertson, 22, supplied the report that led to her husband's arrest early Monday.

Robertson terrified his own family with a rifle just a few hours before the kidnapping of Miss Schneider early Sunday from a car parked in a lovers' lane west of here. He used the same gun to shoot her three times in the head.

ROBERTSON SAID "it all started" when he stormed out of his home after an argument with his wife, which ended when he took his rifle and shot two family pictures off the wall.

He said he stopped for a "couple of swallows of whisky," had a bowl of chili and some beer, and then drove around aimlessly. He said he drove to the lovers' lane where he spotted the parked car. In it were Miss Schneider, her boy friend, Ellsworth E. Farnik, 21, and another Fort Collins couple.

He said he started shooting at the car with the rifle as the two couples huddled on the floor. He said after taking their billfolds, he said he ordered "the blonde one" to come with him.

BOB AND PAT DUNNING'S DREAM CAR COMES TRUE IN PLYMOUTH'S END-OF-MODEL CLEARANCE SALE

Canny young local couple takes advantage of year's lowest prices

Bob and Pat Dunning had put off buying a car. Budget. Wanted to see what would happen.

Last week as Bob, a commercial artist, was driving to work he noted a sign in a Plymouth dealership reading, "End-of-Model Clearance Sale. Lowest Prices of the Year." "Just," as he says, "for the fun of it," he stopped his car and went in. Chatted with a Plymouth salesman. Couldn't believe his ears.

Bob and Pat own their new Plymouth now—made the best deal of their lives. You can, too, if you hurry. This End-of-Model Clearance Sale will be on at your Plymouth dealer's until the last 1958 is sold. All models included, and all at the year's lowest prices. All come equipped with Plymouth's luxurious Torsion-Aire Ride at no extra cost. All feature sleek Silver Dart Styling, Total-Contact Brakes, thrilling sports-car "feel," other Plymouth exclusives. Engine options even include the breath-taking Golden Commando V-8.

Better stop in at your Plymouth dealer's today. If you've been waiting to "see what happens" ... it's happening right now!

Sinatra Shakes MGM With New Shooting Time Schedule

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Frank Sinatra shook staid old MGM to its celluloid foundation at the start of his new movie by insisting the studio shoot the picture from noon until 8 o'clock in the evening.

The giant studio had always adhered to the time-honored 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. schedule.

In the old days the late Louis B. Mayer would have pushed a button cancelling the picture and everyone connected with it. But in 1958 Frank Sinatra's name on the marquee is money in the bank.

TO THE STUDIO'S surprise, Frank's swing-shift is working wonders.

"I never saw any laws about having to shoot at 9 in the morning," Sinatra said during a break in his dressing room. "Performers work better in the afternoon. They're ready to go to work."

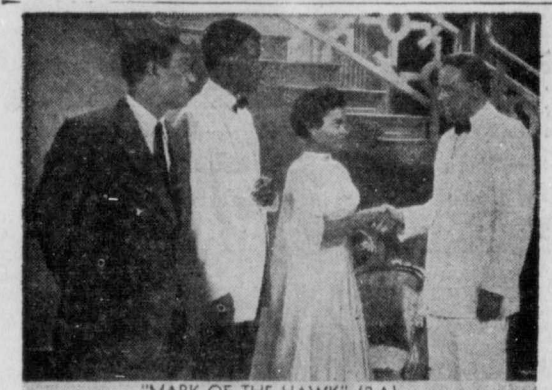

"It's great for the gals because they look better than in the morning and they don't run out of gas by 5 o'clock. At 4 o'clock we have a lunch break with everything spread out right here on the set."

"I GOT THE IDEA for these hours in Europe. That's how they work over there."

"My last two pictures, 'Pal Joey' and 'Kings Go Forth' were shot on this schedule. I wouldn't work any other way. I've never recorded a song during the day—always at night."

"So far we've been romping on this schedule, and everybody gets more sleep."

SINATRA is starting in "Some Came Running" with Dean Martin and Shirley MacLaine. Neither of the crooners sings in the melodrama, but Shirley manages to belt out a tune.

JOHN GAVIN and Lilo Pulver star in the new CinemaScope picture "A Time to Love and a Time to Die." Erich Maria Remarque's great story of World War II, now showing at the Village Theatre.

Backstrand Is Instrumental In Pushing Stiffer Penalties

Tightening and clarification of California law covering penalties for offenders with prior convictions looms for action at the next session of the State Legislature, according to Assemblyman L. M. "Lee" Backstrand.

The impending legislative action stems from Assemblyman Backstrand's resolution, introduced and unanimously adopted at the last session of the Legislature.

Hair Jewels Decreed for New Fashion

Straight from Paris comes new attention and new excitement for one of the most flattering fashions of the year — jewels worn on the head and in the hair, the Fashion Coordination Institute reports.

These head jewels take several forms, the Institute reports. Often they are pins worn on hair bands or bows and matched to earrings for a "costume" look to an ensemble.

Special hair ornaments to be worn in the hair itself also have a new importance, reports show. Combs, barrettes, pins, clips, all designed to give a glittering touch to tousled Empire curls, are important.

The simplest and most effective jewel touch of all was seen at several famous houses where pins were worn in the hair itself to give a lovely "suspended" jeweled touch to the cocktail and evening clothes.

The trick lies in fastening the most beautiful pin you own to a simple narrow transparent head clip, sold in most variety stores. The clip hugs the head securely and hidden under the hair, it leaves the pin to glitter apparently suspended by magic in the new coiffures.

This jewels-in-the-hair fashion — seen in everything from glittering gowns to a king's ransom to glamorous costume pieces — is one of the smartest fashion ideas of this fabulous season, the experts agree.

Brainards Return From Motor Trip

The Fay E. Brainards who have been vacationing in Allenspark, Colorado, are now on an extensive motor trip through Eastern Canada, the New England States to Washington, D. C., then through Shenandoah and Great Smoky National Parks, on through the Ozarks and then home to Palm Springs shortly after the middle of October. They plan to take several colored pictures of these areas with their autumn coloring.

Jobs Daughters From Compton Weekend Here

Fifty girls from Job's Daughters, Bethel 32, of Compton enjoyed a very wonderful weekend September 5, 6 and 7 in sunny Palm Springs, driving here by chartered bus.

The group took over El Coronado Hotel for the weekend. Swimming in the pool by day and by night, basking in the sun and shopping in town were some of the highlights of the trip.

Each Honor Queen of the Bethel has a trip for the girls, and Palm Springs was Queen Gail's choice. This is the first time the girls have visited Palm Springs as a group.

Line officers of the Bethel are Gail Entrop, Honored Queen, Marilyn Fyke, Senior Princess, Judy Masonheimer, Junior Princess; Pam Myers, Guide; and Lynn Entrop, Marshall. Other Bethel members to enjoy this weekend were Pat Anderson, Pat Armstrong, Sharon Bodamer, Nancy Brown, Ann Brightman, Frances Ghilders, Stephanie Clary, Pat Cunningham, Margaret Davis, Nancy Evelyn, Kay Fenner, Kathy Goodhue, Sue Heacock, Iris Henderson, Kathleen Holland, Linda Kammer, Kerry Keaton, Sandra Kester, Linda King, Cheryl Le Hue, Carol Lundgren, Sandra Lundgren, Sandra Martin, Sandra Moyer, Rita Myers, Nancy Susan Parker, Ann Pentecost, Kay Pietz, Beverly Pyle, Lorene Pyle, Carol Robinson, Lynda Salmone, Eloise Sellers, Carol Swanson, Susan Weaver, Colleen Williams, Karen Woodden, Nancy Yerigan, Clarice Haney, Lucy Vawter.

The group was chaperoned by Opal Wilson, Guardian, Walter Fyke, Associate Guardian, Marjorie Edmunds, council member, and Marge and Jess Entrop, parents of the queen. Driver of the bus was Ray Rickard.

Back from Del Mar The Alfrid Stutz Srs. of 410 Avenida Ortega, are back home again after spending the summer months near Del Mar.

Clarks Observe 54th Anniversary of Their Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark of 430 Avenida Ortega, who were married 54 years ago in Wardner, Idaho, celebrated their anniversary on Friday.

The couple have two sons. Wellman Clark is a Spokane attorney, and Charles Clark is with the American Chicle Company in Buenos Aires.

Helping celebrate were their neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Al Gardner and Mrs. Mae Aldrich, who hosted a small dinner party in honor of the occasion. The Gardners, Clarks and Mrs. Aldrich live in a triplex. A guest at the dinner party was Mrs. Adelaide Cunningham.

Kieleys Back from Vacation Avalon on Catalina Island was the vacation spot for the Tom Kieley family. They returned home Labor Day after spending two weeks there.

Trixie Jarrette Back in Village

Trixie Jarrette is back in the Village and resuming her dance classes.

Following minor surgery in mid-June, she spent a month in Riverside, recuperating at the home of her mother, Mrs. Trudy Blanco. Then she and Polly Isenagel went to Colorado and motored all over the state.

Trixie came home in time to attend the National Dance Masters of America convention in Long Beach, where she was on the social committee.

At Home Again

Redlands, Montana and Idyllwild were vacation spots for Dr. and Mrs. D. H. McCauley of 1580 Mesquite, who have just returned after being away all summer.

SHE'S QUEEN OF A MILLION.—Pretty Joan Suggs, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Suggs, of West Covina, has been chosen to preside over the festivities of the 31st annual Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona, Sept. 12-18, where a million or more visitors will pass through the turnstiles in the 17 days. Selected by a panel of competent judges, he was one of 11 finalists named by popular vote from 500 coeds of Mt. San Jacinto College. The remaining 10 serve as princesses of the royal court.

Los Angeles County Fair Set for Gala Opening Friday

The Southland's greatest fall spectacle, Los Angeles County Fair and Harvest Festival, swings open its gates at 10 o'clock this Friday morning for its 31st annual presentation with the proud boast that it is more comprehensive, more representative and diversified than ever before.

During its 17 days, well over a million visitors are expected to maintain its status at the world's largest county fair.

OPENING DAY is featured by an inaugural parade through the grounds starting at 12 o'clock with the fair's beautiful queen, Miss Joan Suggs and her ten princesses, providing an attractive escort for fair, city and county officials and other dignitaries. The queen will be officially crowned with impressive ceremonies before the grandstand the next afternoon.

Replete with appealing innovations, additions and surprises, the exposition dramatizes the latest achievements and techniques in a score of distinctive divisions all attuned to this atomic age. They include such basic contributions to the economy as agriculture and horticulture, livestock, commerce and industry, science and research, public welfare, radio and television, outdoor living and recreation, women's world, junior fair, education, national security, homes and furnishings, the cultural arts, etc.

THE STORY is told in over 40,000 individual entries offering literally miles of exhibits and displays of astonishing diversity. The huge steel and concrete buildings, among some 200 permanent structures of various kinds and purposes, have more than 3,000,000 square feet of floor space. The figure indicates the fair's proportions.

The backdrop to this gigantic stage, representing total investment of over $25,000,000 is spectacular entertainment, commensurate with the magnitude and importance of the event. As the greatest county fair in the world, it is fitting that it should have, as its key attraction, "The Greatest Show on Earth"—Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey Circus. However this is but one feature in the kaleidoscope round of scintillating diversion, filling every hour of every day and every night, and including a world's fair midway.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR is added by the Mexican and Italian Villages and displays from other countries. Other spots are the Plaza of States, a typical western village, the world's largest miniature railway system and the sports plaza.

'Hire a Veteran Week' to Be Held Sept. 14-20

Sept. 14-20 has been designated "Hire a Veteran Week" by Governor Goodwin J. Knight, according to L. S. Ogle, chairman of the Coachella Valley Veterans Employment Committee.

Chairman Ogle said the week was set aside in recognition of the fact that many of the State's ex-servicemen are unemployed.

The Coachella Valley Veterans Employment Committee is dedicated to publicizing for veterans and employers the priority of job referrals granted veterans, under law, by the job placement and counseling service of the California department of Employment.

Chairman Ogle urged both veterans who are seeking work and employers who have job openings to use the placement facilities of the Department's local office at Department of Employment, 83-151 Requa, Indio.

Items ranging from fresh cut flowers to giant electronic grains are among the more than 600 different products now being flown by the nation's air freight carriers.

Pedestrian Mall To Be Feature Of New Center

Leave it to oilman and hotelier Ray Ryan to add glamour and showmanship to anything he tackles.

This time it's the 22-acre, $10,000,000 regional shopping center he and attorney A. R. Simon are building in the immediate vicinity of Palm Springs' new City Hall.

THE CENTER will boast an extraordinary pedestrian mall. It will feature elaborate fountains and flower displays ringed by shade trees and park benches.

The park-like mall is designed to serve a two-fold purpose. 1. Enable people living within a 150-mile radius of Palm Springs to enjoy a one-day visit in the desert resort city. 2. Instill the mood of relaxation in shoppers and encourage their young to play.

THE NEW MART'S parking areas will not be vast and barren expanses of hot black asphalt. They will be shaded by trees and punctuated by flower and cactus beds.

Oklahoma Appears Headed for Repeal of 51-Year-Old Dry Laws

By CARTER BRADLEY
United Press International
OKLAHOMA CITY (UP)—The dam that has kept legal liquor out of Oklahoma since statehood in 1907 is beginning to crack.

Oklahoma Democrats who have always controlled the state government, sent a shock wave through the legal structure of prohibition in June by nominating for governor a 32-year-old reformer who promises a quick vote on constitutional repeal.

The nominee, Tulsa County Attorney J. Howard Edmondson, has promised stricter enforcement of prohibition pending its test at the ballot box. Wets have hailed this as their best omen yet. They have argued that Oklahoma will remain legally dry as long as its bootleggers flourish.

And flourish they have. Edmondson said that as a county attorney he has been unable to prosecute liquor merchants due to loopholes in the laws relating to search and seizure.

The state's bootleg business has been estimated unofficially at 100 million dollars a year.

Edmondson's opponent in the Democratic runoff primary, who had the endorsement of the United Dry Association of Oklahoma, was swamped under the biggest landslide of votes in Sooner history. And last year, the dries lost by a wide margin a statewide referendum in which they attempted to establish local option for 3.2 beer.

Beer, or "3.2" as it is called by most Oklahomans, is legally defined as non-intoxicating by state law — thus opening another chink in the prohibitionist's armor. Beer was legalized in Oklahoma 25 years ago, about the time most Americans were freed from the injunctions of the Volstead Act, or national prohibition.

Edmondson said legalized liquor would bring into the state treasury millions of dollars in taxes which Oklahoma drinkers are now paying to neighboring states.

"I am very much interested in seeing that the right kind of control features are included in any repeal measure submitted to our people," said Edmondson.

"I believe the people of Oklahoma have made up their minds on this issue, but they want to see that adequate controls and revenue features are provided."

The red-haired gubernatorial nominee is considered a cinch for victory in the general election in November barring a political miracle.

His Republican opponent for Governor is Phil Ferguson of Woodward.

But Ferguson is even more opposed to prohibition than Edmondson. So, even in the unlikely event there is a GOP victory this fall, one of Will Rogers' classic remarks seems headed for oblivion.

Babbage Gives Five-Point Plan For Victory

RIVERSIDE — Congressional candidate John Babbage in a fiery address at party headquarters to the Riverside County Republican Central Committee appealed to the party workers of the necessity for an all-out campaign in selling the party to the voters.

Babbage pointed out that a recent survey showed more Democrats thought their party was important than Republicans.

TO COUNTERACT this he proposed a five-point battle plan for party workers:

1. "We must plan now to set up victory squads so that not less than 95 per cent of the registered Republicans will vote in November."

2. "Next, we must make the record clear that the liberal elements leading the Democratic Party in California want to put control over practically everything we do in a centralized government in Washington."

3. "We must expose the Saund CIO, PAC, COPE dominated record for what it is — a rubber stamp Congressman for big labor."

4. "WE MUST PLEDGE ourselves to match dollar for dollar the funds big labor unions will use in our county to elect Democrats. They will be getting their money from working Democrats. Let us get our money from working Republicans."

5. "We must impress on the people of this district that if the present leadership of the Democratic Party in California has its way, we will not have, in this state, any control on Communism and subversive activities, narcotics and labor-management relations."

Civil Service Exams Set at Marine Base

Civil service examinations for stenographers and typists to fill vacancies at Headquarters, Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms, were announced today.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the Representative, Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms, (Building 1042, Room 5), or from the local post office.

Applications will be accepted until further notice.

El Capitan May Be Conquered

YOSEMITE CITY — Four bold mountaineers were well on their way today to being the first to conquer the granite face of Yosemite's famed El Capitan.

El Capitan, a Yosemite landmark, rises 3,600 feet from the floor of Yosemite Valley. The first 800 feet is a relatively easy slope, but the upper 2,800 feet is practically vertical.

The four climbers, led by Mark Powell, 27, Fresno, and Venice, are sure they can do it. They began the ascent a week ago and hope to reach the top by Friday.

'P' Forgotten For Helmets

LONDON (UPI) — Three hundred helmet badges just issued to Northamptonshire County police will have to be replaced. Someone left the "P" out of Northamptonshire.

Harry Farbman To Return to Redlands Bowl

Mrs. George Emmett Mullen, founder - president of Redlands Bowl, announces that Harry Farbman of St. Louis has been signed to return as musical director of the newly-founded Redlands Bowl Festival Orchestra, which will start its second season on Tuesday, June 30, 1959.

Farbman and his wife, Edith Schiller, pianist, will come to the Pacific Coast in early spring to fulfill other engagements before Redlands Bowl. Farbman will appear as guest conductor with several orchestras and will also perform violin and piano sonatas with his wife.

Meanwhile, it was revealed by Charles D. Perlee, Redlands Bowl coordinator, that 91,700 persons attended the 21 events during the past summer, an all-time record.

The 5,000-seat amphitheater was filled to capacity or beyond on the opera, ballet and light opera nights. Recital nights, while they have drawn between 2,500 to 4,000, will be continued in 1959 "because we want to maintain a high standard regardless of attendance," Mrs. Mullen said.

THE VEHICLE CODE
The California Vehicle Code is a chubby little volume of 627 pages, representing the wisdom, the judgement and the justice of thousands of people whose business it is to plan, enact, administer and enforce laws, rules and regulations designed to safeguard the lives and property of the State's 7,500,000 drivers and vehicle owners.

To meet changing conditions in the State's growth, economic and social welfare, the code undergoes a thorough overhaul every two years following the biennial general session of the Legislature.

THIS LITTLE BOOK of legal concentrate covers everything, animate and inanimate, with or without wheels, that moves upon or adjacent to streets, roads and public highways: From police to paraplegics, guests to gut wrappers, c.o.w.s to constables and cemeteries, flags to fish wardens, from homicide and honey to history and hitchhikers.

No one person could ever know and comprehend in toto this great body of law which is a Bible of behavior for all who buy, sell, use, drive or ride in an automobile. Yet a violator of any one of these laws may not plead ignorance as a defense.

THE CODE LISTS 311 specific crimes and misdemeanors that may be committed in the manufacture, sale and operation of a motor vehicle. The manner in which these violations may occur, and ways to avoid them, are detailed in some 5,000 sections and subsections that make up the body of the book.

The average driver, or car owner, might say that the bulk of this law, especially that dealing with the obligations of the manufacturer and dealer, is of no concern to him, since he is interested only in his own private driving privilege. In this, of course, the average driver is wrong. For the laws governing the conduct of manufacturers and dealers were made with the average driver in mind. It is primarily for the protection of the individual, the buyer, that dealer laws are designed.

THIS COLUMN will go into the selling and buying phase of "Your Car and the Law," but that will come later, after we have outlined the law as it affects the responsibilities and privilege of driving.

And right here is a good place to remind you that driving IS a privilege, and not a right. We quote from a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States: "The Operator's license does not confer a vested right. The license is a mere privilege to drive a Motor Vehicle, which is subject to revocation for the reasons and in the manner provided by law."

Cathedral City

By JEAN PATANE
Mr. and Mrs. Don Veitch returned recently from a vacation, with the first stop being Lake Tahoe. They traveled through the Mother Lode Country and visited with former Cathedral City residents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, at their Depot Hill mine near Camptownville. Leaving the mining country, they drove to Oakland and a visit with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Veitch, for a few days. While in Oakland they attended the wedding of their grandnephew, David Moore, in San Mateo. Enroute to Cathedral City they traveled the scenic coast route.

A holiday in Mexico was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hicks (Hicks and Alfred) and daughters, Jane and Sara, who returned to their Terrace Road home last Thursday and then left Friday for the weekend at Thomas Mountain.

350 S. PALM CANYON DRIVE

PALM SPRINGS

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes wrong.

City Sales Tax Funds Should Be Retained Here

Already overtaxed and underserved by the County, the City of Palm Springs is now being urged to divert part of local Sales Tax collection into the County Treasury.

Plea is made on the grounds of saving the County Sales Tax ordinance and to preserve the League of Riverside County Cities.

In view of the unequal and discriminatory basis of County taxation and representation which now exists in favor of the small western area of the County against the vast remainder of the Desert Empire, the above appeals are ridiculously farcical.

The "soak the rich" policy which County government has leveled against the desert resort areas in proportionately higher property valuations and resultantly higher taxes here, as compared to similar assessments in the favored West end of the county, are well known.

The desert region provides nearly half of the County tax revenues, has only one Supervisorial representative, and gets about one dollar in five back in any form of county services... once it has been sent "over the mountain."

Yet these westsiders have the audacity to ask us to "contribute" more!

One need only go back a few months ago to the thumping defeat given the County Charter proposal in the River side section to verify the attitude of that area against giving the Desert Region the slightest possibility of better County government or a long, long chance of another representative on the Board of Supervisors.

The attempt to get Palm Springs "to donate" even a penny more into the County coffers should receive short shrift from the City Council. The funds should be retained and spent here in toto, where they are derived and will do the most good.

And, so far as "saving" the League of Riverside County Cities is concerned it would seem much more to the point and of far greater benefit to form a League of Desert Empire Cities.

In fact, the continuing injustices insofar as the Desert is concerned in so many matters of County government constantly lead toward the conclusion that the ultimate and most satisfactory solution is the frequently proposed formation of a Desert County.

Each new tax grab attempt by the selfish interests at our distantly "foreign" county seat adds another incentive to do just that.

Hitting the Campaign Trail

AIR-BORNE Outbound — Safest prediction about the New York governorship race can be made before dropping so much as a landing gear over the Empire State. This contest will be an All-American bore, a marathon of monotony.

This figures to be true because so few stories about Averell Harriman vs. Nelson Rockefeller will be written without dreary reiteration of the non-political fact that both are multimillionaires.

EVERYBODY MUST know that it's impolite to discuss another person's moneybags, but election campaigns have always been held immune from good taste. It would be hard to say whether it will be more tiresome to hear about down-from-riches than up from poverty.

Two winters ago I stopped over to visit friends in the elegant little colony at Boca Grande, Fla., and met an elderly lady who was both wise and witty. She made a fine distinction between what she called the "filthy rich" and the "lovely rich."

SINCE WE'RE GOING to talk money in this Harriman-Rockefeller race, I hold that the press has a duty to stop counting the millions and to some extent expert discrimination between these two classes of plutocracy—the filthy and the lovely.

Unhappily, wealth has lost its true meaning here in what another millionaire, Henry Wallace called "the century of the common man." Wherever you find an accumulation of money, it stands as a monument to a man's success, something we ought never to sneer at. There hardly breathes a New York voter who wouldn't like to make a million.

A GOOD WAY to raise this contest above the intellectual level of a spelling bee would be for Harriman to tell how his father did it in railroads, and for Rockefeller to give us the family version of how his grandfather pulled it off in oil.

This subject matter would have values beyond mere entertainment, although this would be paramount. We need another generation of go-getters in our flagging nation. We need to purge the secrecy and guilt which still cling to the inner ambition of most Americans—to get rich.

Let Harriman and Rockefeller provide inspiration. Instead of telling their fellow-citizens how to batten on the State and Federal alms list, these lucky candidates ought to discuss the one thing in common which they know best—how to make a family fortune. There wouldn't be a bored listener in the house.

THERE IS ANOTHER early-season feature to the 1958 campaign in New York. Governor Harriman, as the incumbent, is asking people to endorse the record he has made. He will, of course, point to the additional welfare services he had put into effect. The voters will have a chance to say whether their bun was worth their penny. But another matter on which the Governor ought to stand is the condition of law and public safety which has developed during his first term.

When Harriman was elected to succeed Thomas Dewey in 1954, a New York lawyer smote his brow in my presence and predicted that the stockade would hold out the savages would fall and that New York would be captured by the gangsters.

DEWEY, SAID THIS lawyer who holds a post in the Federal government and is associated with the Labor Movement, had cut his teeth in the law-enforcement occupation. Dewey knew enough and was tough enough to hold the hoodlums at bay.

"But Harriman!" It was at this point that my respondent eloquently struck his palm against his forehead.

Well, what about Harriman's stewardship? How has he done along the waterfront? Has he made the Gotham jungles a safer place for defenseless women, for little children and for honest men? As the chief executive what is his record for defending civilization in his State?

THIS ENDORSEMENT of incumbency is not limited to New York. Governors in Arkansas and Texas, U. S. Senators from Tennessee and Texas have already won renomination in places where that is almost the same as election. There was controversy and contest in each of the cases here cited.

Clear and contentious issues were settled by democratic methods in the endorsement of Orval Faubus, Price Daniel, Albert Gore and Ralph Yarborough. Like or lump it the rest of us must accept these men as their people's choice for second terms on the merits of their first terms.

Well, it would be a crying shame if anything less should happen in other states. There is danger that the true test will not take place in New York State, where there is so much palaver about money. Governor Harriman must be seriously challenged on his record. Otherwise the election will be a crime as well as a bore.

—Holmes Alexander

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend has been seeing another woman for about six months and he tells me how much free love he has been getting from her. I have refused to give him any free love because I don't believe in acting like that before marriage. He tells me I am from the old school. Is there anything wrong with my beliefs or is it him?

OLD SCHOOL

DEAR OLD: Hang onto your "old school" ideas. The "free love" he has been talking about is the most expensive kind. Drop that salesman before he enrolls you in his school.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 17 and I think I have a problem. I have been seeing this guy who is 19 but he says he doesn't want to go steady. He told me he loves me and I know I am in love with him. He told me he didn't want to see too much of me because he doesn't want to get sick of me. After telling me this he put me on a bus to go home and didn't say when he would call me. Do you think he meant it when he said he loved me? I want to know what to do.

LOSS OF WORDS

DEAR LOSS: If this fellow loves anything — it's his own freedom. Don't take him seriously.

DEAR ABBY: I have been widowed for six years and now have an opportunity to remarry. I understand that there is a new state law which gives the husband half his wife's assets. My husband's insurance, holdings and properties add up to about $30,000. This is a lot of money and all I have in the world. I am not saying this man who asked to marry me is marrying me for my money but I know he isn't as well off as I am. I like this man, but I am not sure I like him $30,000 worth. Should I talk it over with him and ask him if he is counting on this law or what? QUESTIONING

DEAR QUESTIONING: Talk to a lawyer about drawing up a prenuptial agreement. If your husband is not marrying you for your money he won't mind putting it in writing.

DEAR ABBY: I know this is none of my business, but I am very curious. Although your name is certainly DUTCH, I have the feeling that you are of LATIN origin. Am I right? CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Go to the foot of the class.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookseller to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

Today I am so
 Full of "elate"
 At noon I leave
 On the Golden State.

"My apologies to Mr. Webster and Messrs. Funk and Wagnalls. If that wasn't a noun before, it is now.

SO NOW, everything's all set. Tickets bought and paid for, (courtesy Mrs. G.). Bags all packed, (Courtesy ditto.) By coincidence, I hit the same bedroom letter on all three trains, the Golden State, California Zephyr and the Lark. No strain on the memory. Bedroom E all the way around.

Have received my final briefing and all there is left is to shoe-horn myself on to the train.

MY LAST MINUTE instructions were concise and complete. For instance:

1-ATTIRE.
 a—Remember, in Palm Springs they might think you are eccentric. Other places they'll think sloppy.

b—Bolo ties are fine when you can't button your shirt collar. But yours are big enough. Button them and tie a regular necktie in a neat knot.

c—Bedroom slippers are o.k. in your room. Wear shoes elsewhere.

d—Don't forget your hat.

2-CONVERSATION.
 a—There are seven other teams in the National League besides the Braves and eight in the American.

b—USC hasn't had the greatest football team for some years.

c—There are a few other places besides Palm Springs the residents of which might wish to mention.

d—Other people have grandchildren.

3. GENERAL CONDUCT a—Let the railroad people run the train.

b—Don't argue with your grandchildren.

c—Don't call them Little Monsters, even affectionately, in the presence of their parents, or so they can hear you. They might tell on you.

d—Don't wander away from the train side in stations where they stop less than a minute.

e—Remember you are a grand-father.

4-MENTAL ATTITUDE
 a—Don't worry about The Desert Sun. It gets along without you splendidly.

b—Don't worry about me. Likewise.

c—Hang up your hat. The seat in your room is a bed at night, and superstitious as you are, it will spoil your trip if you toss your hat on the seat and discover later that it has been on a bed.

d—Remember you are on your own.

e—No Kenny Brott to hover over you like a mother hen as in Palm Springs.

f—Or like me in Long Beach.

g—All club car entrepreneurs are not Percy who takes much better care of you than the tips merit.

5-IN CONCLUSION
 a—Remember you are a grand-father. (Repeated for emphasis.)

b—Having already forgotten all of the above, have fun.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

At the old Ground Hotel in Ennis, County Clare, Ireland. A blue sky day with big, white, lazy clouds sailing overhead.

Ennis is a wonderful little Irish town. Narrow streets lined with shops—so narrow that I scraped gently against another car today. At least four people took my license number immediately. The Irish love trouble and will go to all sorts of length to help it along!

ACROSS THE STREET, the deep bells of the gray cathedral strike the holy hours. And in Abbey Street, we walked among ancient graves in the ruined Franciscan Abbey built by King Doncha Cairbreach O'Brien in the 13th Century.

"Burnt and ruin twice by Cromwell's soldiers," said the Irish policeman. "But the 13th time, we burnt and ruin it ourselves."

AN IRISH CAMERAMAN has been taking pictures today. In a mixed moment of fatherly affection and skullgurgery, I got the Irish government to invite my child as a teen-age fashion consultant.

Man is born to trouble as the sparks fly upward. But I have a talent for going around and looking for it.

This 15-year-old girl now thinks I am just along as a chauffeur and a button-up-the-backer.

"ZIP ME AND be sure to get the hooks."

"Hire yourself a maid, m'lady," I said huffily. "I have many things to do besides playing patsy for you."

"Please, Daddy. Just this once."

"OK." I am like putty with this child. But this is the LAST time. My fingers are zippered bare. Also it is very boring.

WE ARE MODELING Irish tweeds from the great shops at Shannon Airport. Those wonderful heather-colored tweeds from Donegal.

They are loaned for the photographs. But they come off her back like adhesive tape. Such signing and conniving.

"That one is so NEAT! Oh, I wish I could buy that one."

SHE IS ON AN allowance—$30 already changed into Irish pounds. She is a thrifty youngster. She does not intend to spend a ruddy tuppence if she can wheedle it out of me.

"There is absolutely no use giving me those great sighs," I said firmly. "For you only sound like a horse out of breath. Nor is there any use looking pitiful. Anything you buy comes out of your trip allowance."

"Yes, Father." Sigh. Sigh. Sigh. Good grief! I should have my head examined.

WE ATTRACTED quite a little group of people while the camera clicked. She was slightly nervous. But shortly began to enjoy it.

"What do you think they think?" she whispered.

"Why," I said. "I imagine they think you are a famous movie star with bands on her teeth. Possibly they think you are Marilyn Monroe. Or Susie Parker."

"Father! Stop!"

"I TRUST YOU have your ball point handy. For no doubt you will be asked for autographs and signed pictures. That is the price we must pay for fame," I said. "And I am honored to be related to such a celebrity."

Nobody asked for an autograph, however.

"And are you enjoying Ireland now?" said the genial shop keeper. "We're always happy to have tourists."

It was very deflating. This child has been working hard to keep from looking like a tourist. It racked her head considerably. Saved me the trouble of doing it myself.

QUOTES

NEW YORK — Mrs. Carrie Haynes on why a group of 15 Negro students boycotted classes in two Harlem schools to force the board of education to assign them to other schools:

"We want the children sent to schools out of the neighborhood which are better integrated."

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

EARL WILSON:

Down With Women's Wigs

NEW YORK — I wouldn't give a fig for a girl in a wig: Her I could only dig. A hole real big.

Miss Julie Wilson opened a singing engagement at the St. Regis wearing a catsup-colored wig.

Breathtakingly beautiful when attired in her own hair, Julie in the condiment-tinted hairpiece had all the sparkle of a sandwich left over from the 1939 World's Fair. All the women customers, including my B.W., proclaimed, however, that it was chic, sophisticated, fashionable and — the honest ones added — fully as pretty as Harpo Marx's hairdo.

The wig rage is proof that the geniuses concocting women's fashions today really hate women.

Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher are again having problems. Debbie went to the L.A. airport the other day to meet him returning from N.Y. — and he wasn't aboard. Eddie had remained here planning his TV show and escorting Liz Taylor. (Thursday night he and Liz made Quo Vadis and The Embers) ... Didn't some of the "agony" TV shows use professional actors to pretend they were cripples, poverty cases, etc.?

Hal Block phoned from Chicago to kid me about my traveling. "You go everywhere for a story," he screamed. "Why, there are times when you even cover Broadway!" ... Today's talent tip: Watch Shecky Greene: The zany comedian who shook up the Las Vegas Sahara all summer was signed by Ed Sullivan for 12 shows a week. "This and a lot of wonderful things have happened since you gave me that write-up." Actually, he was so hilarious, breaking up even George Gobel and Red Skelton, that I had to write about him. ... Several comedians now use the line: "And now for a word from our president: 'Fore!'" But Milton Berle credits Don Rickles with originating it.

Ordered your cuffless trousers yet? Stylist Irving Heller says the cuffless pants that were dust-catchers have got to go; cuffless pants also give you height. Red Buttons is the latest addict ... Cary Grant, who looks so healthy because he uses a terrace at the Plaza to sun-tan himself, is filming the Hitchcock thriller, "North by Northwest," in a very intimate little spot: Grand Central. Girls who don't even plan to go anywhere will be boarding trains from there ... Today's Wilson girl: The brunette Brigitte Bardot, the dancing sexpot, is Tybee Affra, who's so Latin — no wonder, she's from Monticello, N. Y.

People often ask me, "How do you get your news?" Well, sometimes it just drops on my desk in a simple, shy, bashful letter such as this one from Hollywood:

"Here is a bit of first news about myself for your famous column. I am now a regular on the Doodles Weaver show on station KBLA and also the singing star in his new night club act. Also my new recording of 'I'll Never Smile Again' on the Tender label has sold 100,000 records in one week out here in Hollywood. Also last week, I flew to Rome, Italy, to visit my good friend, beautiful Ava Gardner. She asked me to bring along a dozen of my latest records because she digs my voices! She likes me to sing songs of life to her! She is the best and the greatest and I am quite smitten with her.

(She says I have a sexy voice.) ... Thank you, Robert Anthony. (Hoboken's good will ambassador of song.)

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Many a woman has been tripped by a low hemline — and many a man has been tripped up by a low neckline.

Marriage is a nice sort of life for a man to lead — if only his wife would let him do a little leading. ... That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Debbie Back in Good Graces

Hollywood — Elsa Lanchester got fed up with co-starring with her husband on the London stage in "The Party" and flew back to Hollywood — leaving Charles Laughton to find a new leading lady, i. e., Renee Huston.

Debbie Reynolds says she'll make up with MGM (the studio suspended her for turning down the goody-goody role in "Good Girls Get Married") if they'll mate her with Tony Perkins in their remake of Philip Barry's "The Matinee Game."

JOANNE WOODWARD and Paul Newman are trying to rent Eleanor Roosevelt's New York apartment. The young-marrieds will quit Hollywood after she finishes "The Sound and the Fury" for Fox and he winds "The Philadelphia Story" for Warner Bros., to live in Manhattan while she has her baby due next April and he stars in Tennessee Williams' new play, "Sweet Bird of Youth."

DEVOTED DUO Dep't: Joan Cohn, widow of Columbia Picture's prexy Harry Cohn, and Harry Karl, Marie McDonald's ex-husband.

AN ACTOR SEEKING the role of a villain in a new Warner movie stuck his head in casting director Solly Baiano's door, swung a tennis racket at the tennis-playing Baiano (University of Illinois net-letter-winner, class of '20 or thereabouts) and hollered, "Menace, anyone?" ... P.S. He got the job.

A reader writes: "I read your column of yesterday about the party thrown by the Rouben Mamoulian for the Gregory Pecks. Why all the mystery? Why don't you tell us what those parties are REALLY like? Are you trying to hide something?"

WELL, DEAR READER, I didn't know you cared that much but here goes: Azadia Mamoulian phoned me a week before the party and said, "The Pecks are coming back to Hollywood from their cross-country tour in a few days so Rouben and I thought it would be nice to make it a black-tie affair — about 20 of us — cocktails at 7, dinner at 8:30."

I accepted. It WAS a cool night. I was an hour late (for some reason, probably because of the distances one has to travel in Los Angeles, nobody ever gets to a party, premiere or first night on time).

A BUTLER USHERED me through the huge door imported from an old castle in Europe by the Mamoulians for their own home (this after a long drive up Sunset Boulevard to a hill-top in Beverly Hills and a short push at the doorbell) to the huge, modern, hung-with-Modiglianis-Picassos-Rouaults, etc., drawing room.

But first I stopped in the reception hall, looked at the guest book and jotted down the names of the guests: Greer Garson and Buddy Fogelson, ex-Ambassador to Belgium, Australia and the Philippines, Myron Cowen and his wife Dorothy, Rock and Gary Cooper, publisher Roy St. Lewis and his wife Peggy, Doris and Jules Stein — Jules is president of Music Corporation of America — and their daughter, Susan, Pulitzer Prizewinner Paul Horgan, and Sandra Cowen McElwaine, daughter of the Cowens, and her husband, Hollywood press agent Bob McElwaine. I joined Miss Garson and Horgan for cocktails. Time: About 8:30.

MISS GARSON, a brilliant conversationalist, was inviting Horgan to visit her own private cemetery in Pecos, N. M. Very interesting, this, because the cemetery was part of the ranchland purchased by Greer's husband, Fogelson, back in the '30s, along with the old mission founded by the fabulous movie star in the fabulous home of his friend Mamoulian (Horgan was Mamoulian's assistant when Rouben first became a stage director in 1923 in Rochester, N. Y.) — now, Horgan will also be able to examine Lamy's old mission and the gravesites in the mission cemetery to his heart's content.

And Horgan, it developed, is writing the biography of the same Lamy, after whom the town of Lamy, N.M., was named. It will take him four years to complete it, he said, because he will visit the town in France where Lamy was born; Rome, to dig into the Vatican archives on the Archbishop; and now, by the strange coincidence of meeting a fabulous movie star in the fabulous home of his friend Mamoulian (Horgan was Mamoulian's assistant when Rouben first became a stage director in 1923 in Rochester, N. Y.) — now, Horgan will also be able to examine Lamy's old mission and the gravesites in the mission cemetery to his heart's content.

AT DINNER Mrs. Mamoulian presided at one table for ten, Mamoulian at the other (mine), in her beautiful, candle-lit, flower-bedecked dining room adjoining the drawing room.

During dinner (squab 'n' d ham, baked potatoes, green beans, salad, home-made "monkey bread," three wine courses including a 1947 imported champagne to wash down with—and all served by two butlers and four maids), the conversation at my table was about the L. O. S. Angeles Dodgers, reincarnation (Mrs. Peck believed in it, I didn't), the traffic mess on the Hollywood Freeway (Gary Cooper said, "The politicians should have let the studio technicians map out our roads — one pro-man on one of our backlots has more miracles at his fingertips than any 10 politicians!"), and the weather.

Back to the drawing room, after dinner, for cigars and after-dinner brandy and more good conversation.

Mrs. Mamoulian spirited off those of us who hadn't seen the house before (I had, so I didn't take the "personally-conducted A-Tour") and I sat and listened to Greer and talked to Horgan, the Pecks and the Coopers. The party broke up at 1:30 a.m. ... And that, dear reader, is what the party was REALLY like!

TODAY'S SPORT PAPADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—An optimistic Mickey Mantle served notice on the Milwaukee Braves today that neither they nor Lew Burdette can do it again.

Mantle was looking ahead to the World Series. And he wanted the Braves to understand that a fit New York Yankee team had no anticipation if any such shenanigans as the Braves' seven-game triumph last fall.

'BURDETTE COULDN'T win three games again,' he said flatly. "Pitchers just don't do that, particularly twice in a row, and I don't care if it was a Walter Johnson or who it was."

Fit and "feeling better than I ever have at this time of the year," Mantle tempers his optimism with a certain amount of caution. Always in the forefront of his mind is the strange series of accidents or injuries which almost always seem to strike him during the classic — right from that first one in 1951.

THAT WAS THE series in which, running across the Yankee outfield after a fly ball, he stepped in a drain opening and dropped as if shot.

"Something just gave way," says the bull-necked blond from Oklahoma, a long-time victim of osteomyelitis. "I lay there in a cold sweat and thought my career was ended just as it was starting."

Mantle has been hampered by bad legs throughout his career, and they always seem to act up the worst at World Series time.

"LAST YEAR," he recalled with a trace of bitterness, "it was something they called shin splints. Frankly, I don't know what it was. But it sure did hurt. Then, just as that started to come around, Red Schoendienst fell on my arm in that play at second base. After that I couldn't hardly raise my arm to throw."

Another big Yankee gun, Moose Skovron, was crippled up during that 1957 series in which Burdette hurled three triumphs to lead Milwaukee to its first world championship.

"I THOUGHT WE were the best team," says the usually laconic Mantle. "If we had been fit, we'd have proved it, too. So, feeling just wonderful now, I'm pretty hopeful coming up to the series."

Mantle, sitting with Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants as they announced plans for a post-season American-National League All-Star game at Yankee Stadium on Oct. 12—a joint promotional venture for the 30 ball players involved—returned after the series.

"Jackie Jensen, Roy Sievers and Bob Turley look like the best bets for most valuable player honors in the American League," he analyzed. "But I'd just as soon see Turley be the most valuable player in the series."

He has ideas along those lines for Mantle, too. "I don't have any excuses because I've felt good all season," Mickey said slowly. "I've just had a fairly bad year. But—a good series would make up for all of that."

Jones to Meet Crawford Tonight

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ralph (Tiger) Jones makes his 46th TV ring appearance tonight when he tests Mickey Crawford, a rising young welterweight, in a televised 10-rounder at the Chicago Stadium. Jones, a veteran campaigner in or out of TV range, will be seeking his 44th victory in 69 pro fights when he serves as trial horse to the aspiring welter from Saginaw, Mich.

Pirates Keep Playing Like Champs

Appear Cinch to End in 2nd

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

The Pittsburgh Pirates can't hope to catch the front-running Milwaukee Braves but they're virtually assured today of their best finish in 14 years.

Danny Murtaugh's surprising crew just about clinched second place in the National League Tuesday night when they beat the San Francisco Giants, 4-3 and 2-1, on late inning hits by Frank Thomas and Ted Kluszewski.

THAT GAVE THE Pirates a 4½-game lead over the third-place Giants and put them in a position where a .500 pace in their last 14 games will clinch second place.

The Pirates have finished as high as second only twice in the last 20 years—in 1938 when they blew the pennant in the last week of the season and in 1944 when they trailed the St. Louis Cardinals by 14½ games.

THE PIRATES WON the first game, a contest suspended since July 27, when Thomas singled home Roberto Clemente in the eighth inning.

Kluszewski, pinch-hitting for catcher Bill Hall, singled off Gordon Jones in the ninth inning of the regulation game to snap a 1-1 tie.

The Giants, long the Milwaukee Braves' No. 1 challenger this season, now find themselves in danger of dropping into the second division. They're only two games ahead of fourth-place Cincinnati and three ahead of St. Louis.

THE BRAVES CAME up with two runs in the last of the ninth to edge out the Redlegs, 3-2, and now lead by 6½ games with 15 to play; the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-2 and 4-3, and the Cardinals downed the Chicago Cubs, 8-7, in other N.L. games.

The New York Yankees American League lead was cut to 11 games when they bowed to the Cleveland Indians, 9-2, and the Chicago White Sox beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-1. The Detroit Tigers whipped the Washington Senators, 7-1, and Preston Ward's three homers paced the Kansas City Athletics to an 8-6 decision over the Baltimore Orioles in other A.L. activity.

Wright Wins But Bev Hanson Is Cash Leader

DALLAS, Texas (UPI) — Young Mickey Wright held her second straight tournament title today with an 18-hole playoff victory over veteran Beverly Hanson of India in the Dallas Women's Open, but Miss Hanson salvaged some solace from the loss.

Miss Hanson shot a 74 to Miss Wright's one-under-par 71 in the showdown for the $1,247 first prize money. But the $961 she picked up boosted her ahead of all the other women pros in money earnings.

In addition, the 69-71-71-73-284 she scored in tying Miss Wright for first place over the regulation 72-hole route, trimmed her scoring average to 74.91 strokes per round—best among all the pros this season.

Miss Hanson has won $12,354 this year.

Greene Won Empty Victory, Opponents Claim

LAS VEGAS, Nev., (UPI)—Foes of Abe J. Greene, commissioner of the National Boxing Association, claimed today his victory in the big "title fight" was an empty one.

As the NBA's annual convention went into its final session, Frank Gilmer, chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission, said:

"ABE STILL HAS his title of commissioner but the new NBA constitution is certain to curtail his powers drastically."

That new document, which touched off fireworks at Tuesday's sessions, was slated to be completed and adopted today.

IN IT, GREENE, is expected to be given no more power than that of "chairman of the executive committee." That's what the anti-commissioner faction wanted to call him—instead of "commissioner."

Because of the controversy over the commissioner, the convention did not give consideration of champions Sugar Ray Robinson and Archie Moore, criticized for not defending titles over a long period. It was uncertain today whether the convention would get to this matter.

Major Leagues Act to End Unlimited Bonus Payments

CHICAGO (UPI) — A committee set up by the major leagues today was charged with formulating by December a bonus rule "with teeth" to end spending sprees for untested baseball players.

The leagues also organized another committee to study the deterioration of the minor leagues, and a "needed realignment" of the minors.

THE COMMITTEES were formed at a closing session Tuesday of a two-day meeting of American and National League officials.

Club officials voted unanimously on the bonus rule issue and named a committee—made up of three from the minor leagues—to tackle the problem. In addition to drawing up a rule with teeth in it, the committee was charged to set a limit on bonus payments, possibly at $10,000, and to study player draft rules.

BASEBALL COMMISSIONER Ford Frick said he and league officials "were strong" for the return of a bonus rule which would halt excessive payments to high school and college players. The bonus rule was abolished for the 1958 season and Frick confirmed that more than six million dollars was paid out by the major league clubs for untried rookies.

"I know how to do it," he said. "Just give me the right to examine each club's books and that will end under-the-table payments."

NAMED TO THE committee were Charles Feeney, San Francisco, Joe Brown, Pittsburgh, and Bing Devine, St. Louis, of the National League; Parke Carroll, Kansas City, Bill Walsingham, Baltimore, and Frank Lane, Cleveland, of the American League. The "realignment" committee included Bill Dewept, St. Louis; John Quinn, Milwaukee; George Weiss, New York, and John McHale, Detroit, for the majors; Grayle Howlett, Tulsa, Okla., and Vince McNamara of the New York-Pennsylvania League, were named for the minors.

Controversial Match Set in Amateur Today

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The most controversial round of golf in the 58-year history of the National Amateur championship may be played today when defending champion Hillman Robbins tangles with the well-known coast-to-coast golfer, Martin Stanovich.

Stanovich probably has the most unorthodox swing in major league amateur golf. But the claim is he can shoot "just good enough" to win any match. In fact, the U. S. Golf Association took notice of this a couple of years ago when it turned down his application.

"We just rejected the application, no reason given," said Joe Day, executive secretary of the USGA.

But the fact Stanovich had attracted national attention for his gambling proclivities may have had something to do with it.

The field was cut to 64 before today's matches—and by night-fall only 16 of these will be left after the third and fourth rounds.

TV Bout Arranged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Promoter Goldie Ahearn has completed arrangements for a Sept. 26 bout between lightweight Frankie Ryff of New York and Gale Kerwin of Valley Stream, N.Y. The match at Washington's Capital Arena will be televised nationally.

Redlegs Aided by Eye Specialist

By JOHN CARROLL
United Press International

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Those sizzling Cincinnati Redlegs, eyeing a first division finish in the National League, are getting an assist from an eye specialist. It's paying off big dividends.

When the team stopped here for a one-game stand Monday night, it was learned that during the season Redleg players attended special classes to help improve their depth perception and visual reflexes.

AND IT APPEARS the star "pupil" so far is catcher Ed Bailey.

On the advice of the class instructor, Dr. Samuel Lee, of Cincinnati, Bailey recently purchased five pairs of Specs.

"The doctor told me those tests we had in class indicated I had some kind of minor flaw that was temporary and could be corrected easily," Bailey admitted.

SO ED UNDERWENT further examination and it looks like he got the right prescription.

"The first time I used the new glasses in a game was last Sunday against the Phillies," he recalled. "I was sent up to pinch-hit in the ninth inning and hit a three-run homer to win the game for us."

Then to prove it was no fluke, Bailey collected a triple and a single in the nightcap of the Sunday doubleheader.

"I SURE SAW THE ball a lot better; I know earlier in the season I was losing sight of the ball on occasion, especially when we played in the Los Angeles Coliseum. I sure hope I've found the answer to my problem," he said. Bailey, whose batting average dipped from an even .300 in 1956 to only .247 at present, said the classes he and his fellow players attended were designed to increase visual width, depth and speed. The tests given were perfected by the military services and are given to jet pilots.

THE CINCINNATI catcher said he didn't think attending special eye classes by a major league ball team was anything new.

"I seem to recall the Milwaukee Braves had some sort of an arrangement not long ago," he said. "And look what happened to the Braves."

Bamberger Has Best ERA in Coast League

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — George Bamberger of Vancouver racked up the best earned run average in the Pacific Coast League in 1958, final unofficial figures showed today.

League statistician, William Weiss said Bamberger, who led in that department most of the season had a final average of 2.45 for 184 innings in 31 games.

Marshall Brides of Sacramento and Art Fowler of Spokane were the loop's top winners, each notching 16 victories.

Bridges also led the league with 205 strikeouts and with 111 bases on balls.

Phoenix shortstop, Andre Rodgers wound up the 1958 season as the batting champion with a league-leading mark of .354, seven points higher than Earl Averill of San Diego.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW

Fagaly and Shorten

Rancho Mirage

By JEAN PATANE

Mrs. Stanley Spiegelman and son, Howard, are back at their Rancho Mirage home following a summer spent in Los Angeles. In August Mrs. Spiegelman flew their daughter, Joan, back to her school in Wichita, Kansas and then flew on to New York City to visit with friends and to see some of the top shows.

She spent a week in Atlanta, Ga., as the houseguest of her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cohen. Enroute to Los Angeles she met Mr. Spiegelman in Las Vegas, where they visited with friends for a few days.

Laura I. Treadway, secretary at Rancho Water Company, spent a few days last week in San Diego visiting with friends.

Mrs. Christine Erick, owner-manager of the Casa Verde Apartments, returned last week from Los Angeles where she was a houseguest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henning. Weekend guests at Casa Verde were Jack Bows, Willie Norberg, Stephen Neely and Rudy Fitzgerald of Whittier, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Conker and family of Long Beach.

Over the holiday weekend Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower Jr. and daughters, Cindy Mila and Amber and Mr. and Mrs. John Flower and children, Francis, Steve and Dieder, of San Marino, were at the Rancho Mirage home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower Jr., recently returned from a two months tour of Europe chaperoning ten girls from Marymount College, where their daughter attends school. In Stratford on Avon in England, they were entertained by Lord and Lady Hersey Flower, a branch of the Flower family that started the famous Stratford on Avon Theatre Group. Mr. and Mrs. Flower, Sr., returned last Tuesday from a summer spent in Reno, Nev.

Following a week of swimming and sunning at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Slinger, Jimmie Proffitt returned last Sunday to his home in Huntington Park. Over the holiday weekend Jimmie's mother, Mrs. Shirley Proffitt and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grove with their children, Mike and Kathy, enjoyed a weekend together at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Slinger.

Viola Darnall of Rancho Mirage Realty Company recently leased the C. E. Carle home on Tunis Road to former resident Ruby Loughran, who is on the faculty of Palm Valley School, and her sister, Mrs. Heston.

Leonard McCallum opened his Rancho Mirage Barber shop last week for the third season. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum spent the past two months dividing their time between the mountains and the coast.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson (Hoams Construction), celebrated their seventeenth wedding anniversary with a family dinner at their home on San Geronimo Road.

Postmaster and Mrs. Sidney Greenleaf returned to Rancho Mirage Sunday following a four-week vacation in Nevada and parts of California. They made their headquarters at Hawthorn, Nev., where the fishing was excellent and where they enjoyed boating and water skiing. They drove to the various out-of-the-way places in Nevada and visited the ghost town of Bodey, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Purvis recently leased the McMahon home through Viola Darnall of the Rancho Mirage Realty. Mrs. Purvis who has been at the Carl F. Curtis School in Los Angeles for the past nine years, will assume the duties of supervisor of the new Shadow Mountain Private School, opening Oct. 1 in the building formerly occupied by the Rancho Mirage Post Office.

Mrs. Roy Shreck (Shreck Air Transport) recently returned from a six weeks vacation in the Pacific Northwest and her home town of Seattle, where she visited with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Joe Buccino and daughter, Diane, are in San Diego where Diane will attend San Diego State College this year. Diane graduated last June from Palm Springs High School as an honor student.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Copley and children, Russell and Eric, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mottino and children, Gregory and Michael, spent last weekend at Oceanside fishing and swimming.

Over the holiday weekend Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Woodfin (Woodfin Motors in Cathedral City) and children, Robin, Gregg, Gene and Glenn, enjoyed the water sports on Lake Havasu.

TEACHING JOHNNY TO SWIM

SERIES FOUR

Changing directions while swimming is another safety skill Johnny will need to know. To change directions while swimming on the front, he needs only to reach an arm in the new direction and look toward this extended arm. While swimming on his back, he should tilt his head in the direction he wants to go and stroke hard with the opposite hand.

Turning over in the water is another skill Johnny should learn. The upper picture shows the procedure in turning from front to back. He should lower one shoulder and turn his head in the opposite direction, with the arms under water. To turn from back to front, shown in the lower picture, he should lower one shoulder, turning his head in the same direction. Have him start swimming the human stroke as soon as the turn from back to front is completed.

To teach Johnny to enter the water properly by jumping, line him up on the swimming pool deck where the water is chest deep. Have him jump in, strike the bottom, push off in an upward and forward motion, and immediately begin to swim the human stroke.

"AND BLESS—EVERYBODY who helped me"—Just released from the Medical Center at UCLA, where he underwent heart surgery, six year old Pamela Joy Howerton, remembers in her prayers, everybody who helped her. Forty-nine Leathernecks from the Marine Air Station, El Toro, donated blood to help her pull through. Pam's father, Staff Sergeant A. L. Howerton, is stationed at Marine Corps Base in Twenty-nine Palms, and the family resides at 16 A Gold Drive there. (Official U. S. Marine Corps Photograph)

Farm Advisor Leaves for Study in Florida

D. D. Halsey, farm advisor with the Agricultural Extension Service in Coachella Valley, left last week for a year of advanced study at the University of Florida, according to N. L. McFarlane, county director.

Graduate work in citrus and plant physiology are in the course of study Halsey has outlined. The intensive course of study planned as well as a "first hand" knowledge of citrus production in Florida will make him an even more valuable farm advisor in the Coachella Valley, McFarlane said.

During Halsey's absence, Marvin P. Miller, who has specialized in citrus and other tree crops at Riverside, will spend part time in the Coachella Valley. In addition, A. Van Main, who works with vegetable and field crops in the Coachella Valley, will also serve as many additional calls as possible.

Rainbow Girls Enjoy Party At DHS Pool

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—More than fifty Rainbow Girls from Yucca Valley, Twentynine Palms, and Joshua Tree, chaperoned by their mother advisor, Mrs. Henick, attended a swim party at the Hacienda-Rivera Pools.

They also enjoyed the recreation facilities, playing shuffleboard and volleyball and had refreshments from the Hacienda Rivera snack bar.

SUNAIR

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollister and children, Tommy, Susan and Randy, returned Saturday from three months at their summer home at Conneaut Lake in Pennsylvania, where they enjoyed water skiing, boating and fishing. This year Mrs. Hollister will be a member of the faculty of Cathedral City School.

After an absence of three months Mr. and Mrs. George Patrick are back at their Melrose Drive home. They spent the first month in Tacoma and Puyallup, Wash., and then drove East to visit relatives in Ohio and Michigan for a month before returning to Washington for the balance of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wilson returned last week from two months in Seattle, Wash., their former home. The Wilsons are making plans to build their home adjacent to their Sunair Terrace Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Frantzeb who managed the Sunair Terrace during the summer have moved into their home in Palm Desert.

New residents of Sunair are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crockett and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Henderson and their children, Cindy and Ronnie, who this week moved into the Frank W. Thompson home on the corner of Hillcrest and Cathedral Canyon Drive. The family lived in Rancho Mirage since coming to the desert a few months ago. They are the new owners of "C" and "H" Market, formerly Whitney's in Cathedral City.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Berton Lamb and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Seufferer spent Sunday at Idyllwild as dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dona-

High Holy Day Services Set To Start Sunday

A schedule of High Holy Day services at Temple Isaiah, 332 West Alejo Road, has been announced by the ritual committee under the chairmanship of Leib Rosen. Services on Rosh Hashanah Eve will begin promptly at 8:15 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 14.

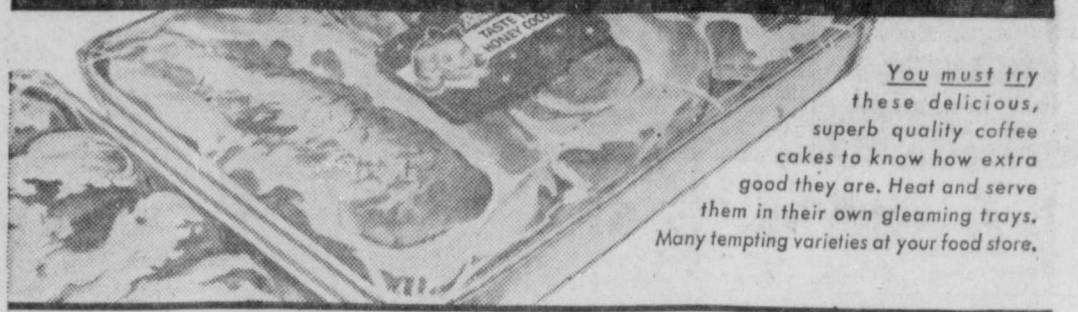

The first day of Rosh Hashanah on Monday, Sept. 15, will present services at 10 a.m. and on Tuesday, the second day, at 9:30 a.m., with special children's service at 3 p.m.

Services will be conducted by the newly appointed rabbi, Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz and Cantor Erwin Halpern. The choir is under the direction of Harry Tomlinson.

Indians attacked Deerfield, Mass., in 1704, killing 40 settlers and abducting 100.
